

Mrs. Erma Bosler Dillon

October 8, 1920 - September 6, 2015

Mrs. Erma (Blondie) Bosler Dillon, age 94, of Salisbury, passed away Sunday, September 6th at her home. She was born October 8, 1920 in Decatur, IL to the late Glenn O. and Ruby Stotts Bosler.

Mrs. Dillon was a graduate of Decatur High School and Decatur Memorial Hospital School of Nursing (1942). She served as nurse to student cadets of the US Army Air Corps at Millikin University in Decatur, IL, where she met her future husband, Walter B. Dillon. The couple married and moved to Atlanta, GA. She and her husband moved around the country during his work with the US Public Health Service.

Mr. Dillon was named CEO of Annie M. Warner Hospital and the family moved to Gettysburg, PA and then to Lebanon, PA when he became CEO of The Good Samaritan Hospital. She was active in the Auxiliary organizations of both hospitals as well as the PTAs of her children's schools.

Upon retirement, the couple moved to Southern Pines, NC, where she was active with the Friends of the Library and local bridge and book clubs.

Mrs. Dillon was preceded in death by her husband in 2001. She is survived by sons Walter, Jr. (Kathy) of Las Vegas, NV and Scott (Jan) of Elon, NC and daughter, Diane Dillon Hooper of Salisbury, with whom she made her home; four grandchildren, Jack Dillon of Concord, CA, Lisa Dillon Penuela (Alex) of Hayward, CA and Christopher and Palmer Dillon of Elon, NC; a sister, Virginia Grimm of Nashville, TN; brother-in-law, James (Barbara) of Atlanta, GA and very special friend, Anne Serwin.

There will be no service. Memorials may be made to: Historic Salisbury Foundation, PO Box 4221, Salisbury, NC 2814-4221.

The family extends special thanks to caregivers Jordan, Beth, Tammy, Ann, Sherry and Amber for making her final years so pleasurable.

Tribute Wall

BT

“ Diane So sorry about the loss of your mother. I want you to know that the way you cared for your mother these many last months is an inspiration to me and others. It was a message of love and caring in the truest of ways. Barbara Teichroew

Barbara Teichroew - September 07, 2015 at 03:52 PM

WD

“ Mom had a great life and lived it well almost until the end. She was deeply loved and will be missed. Walt

Walt Dillon - September 07, 2015 at 11:22 AM