“ Dear Cathy and all of the Family Members,
I will always remember this lady and our visits together when I was serving Union Church. We shared a lot of conversations, communion services, etc. I know you will miss her greatly. I know that she was still in the decision making process about further treatments when I last visited with her. She, along with others, during those 13 months of interim grew close to my heart. I do share in your grief. Rejoice in the Resurrection Faith that assures us of blest reunion.
