“ I knew Elaine almost all of my life. I remember 1428 North Maine Street as her home. Many nights we sat on her Poarch in the swing talking until the wee hours of the morning....hugs and kisses.

“ I love Elaine (Mrs Hillard)

I delivered mail to her in her later years. She would tell me stories of when she was young. How they lived when she was a little girl. Stories about her dad. She would often talk about her daughter Mary and her grandson. She loved them ❤️

She told me how she was a beauty contestant when she was young. I could see her beauty in her kindness towards me. It was truly a blessing to serve her and to come to love her friendship.
