

Florence Hill Barnes

January 15, 1925 - October 5, 2011

Florence Hill Barnes, 86, of Salisbury, died Wednesday, October 5, 2011 at her home.

Born January 15, 1925 in Rowan County, she was the daughter of the late Mary Geneva Cook Hill and Jessie H. Hill.

Mrs. Barnes was educated in the Salisbury schools and graduated from Boyden High School and Salisbury Beauty Academy.

Earlier in her life she was employed at Kress' and later operated a beauty shop in her home before retiring. She and her husband Ollie Barnes, her sister and brother-in-law, Carl and Gladys Lentz developed Foxwood Golf Course in 1969 and continued to operate the golf course until 1983.

She was a member of Enon Baptist Church and the Adult Women's Sunday School Class.

In addition to her parents and sister, Gladys Lentz, she was preceded in death by her husband, Ollie E. Barnes in 1993.

She is survived by her niece, Mary Lentz of Salisbury.

A graveside service will be 2:00 PM – Saturday (Oct. 8) at Rowan Memorial Park with Rev. Mary Louise Sitton, minister of St. Luke's Lutheran Church officiating.

Her niece will speak to friends following the graveside service and will be at Mrs. Barnes residence at other times.

Memorials may be made to the Baptist Children's Home, PO Box 338, Thomasville, NC 27361 or One Dog At A Time, 495 Pickler Rd. Salisbury, NC 28144.

Special thanks to her amazing caregivers, Geraldine Leatherman, Sylvia Butler and Juanita Williams. Also thank you to Rowan Regional Hospice.
