“ Aunt lavada was such a darling person, she had so much love for life. I so enjoyed our phone and Facebook conversations. Her garden tips and stories were memorable, I especially love the story about the watermelon. she had a wonderful way about herself and always left me with a smile. RIP

“ So sad to see my Aunt Lavada leave us, I'm thankful that I got to visit more and have many talks in the past few years. I'll miss the many notes and cards she would write me threw out the years. My aunt never missed a birthday since I can remember with a birthday card and some kind words. Some years it's the only card I would get. My Aunt Lavada, you will be forever in my heart. Love ya!

“ Aunt Frankie was a blessing to all her family, far & wide. Still cherish childhood memories of a mid-1950's family summer vacation to visit Uncle Richard & Frankie in Fayetteville, NC and Myrtle Beach(?), my first time to see & play on the beaches of the Atlantic Ocean. She was always a sweetheart, & we all lived her dearly.
