*Dear Glenda and family,
I was so saddened to read of Fred's passing. He was a dear friend to Robert and I, and he will be greatly missed. Losing a mate, Dad and granddad is never easy. I have walked that road with all three losses and know the void it creates. May our Lord and Savior give you the peace and comfort you need to face the difficult days ahead is my prayer.*

“ Glenda, we are keeping you and your dear family in our thoughts and prayers. Fred's journey was long and difficult but your love and care for him was such a blessing and an example for all of us. May you feel God's loving arms wrapped around you as you walk through this difficult time. Fred's gentle spirit and sweet smile will be missed.
