“ I have been thinking about the day Uncle GT and Aunt Lillie brought George home. They called and wanted me to meet him. I guess being with another child would make him feel more comfortable. Anyway, from then on we were cousins and playmates. Even in the same class at school. Happy Birthday, tomorrow, George. My birthday was Dec. 18 and I was 76. We kept in touch while he was in Germany and later at Little Family Reunions. I saw him around 2017 or 2018 (I think) at his church when our church (Hopewell Baptist) came to sing. So good to see him and also Mary. We spent a few minutes catching up. So glad we did. I'm confident that I will see George again one day because we served the same Lord. I have been praying for your family since I heard that he was so sick.
