“ I had the great pleasure of living beside Mrs. Honeycutt all my life, she was indeed a shining light in our neighborhood! I worked at RRMC for many years & always remember Mrs. Honeycutt coming in to visit friends bringing flowers or tokens to spread care & happiness... She was in deed a Beautiful Example of Christ Love...

“ Gertha was my next door neighbor for many years. She was a dear friend and the sweetest most compassionate soul I ever knew. She will be greatly missed here on earth, but she has gone home to be with God and now walks among the angels. Rest high upon that mountain Gertha. till we meet again.
