

Mrs Gertrude Morgan Broadway

March 12, 1931 - July 28, 2014

Mrs. Gertrude Morgan Broadway, 83, of Salisbury, NC passed away Monday, July 28, 2014 at The Laurels of Salisbury.

Born March 12, 1931 in Rowan County to the late Erma Shaver Morgan and Clarence Morgan, she attended Rowan County Schools and was a graduate of East Spencer High School. Mrs. Broadway was a homemaker.

She was a member of Mt Tabor United Methodist Church, the United Methodist Women, the Grubb-Shoaf Sunday School class, sang in the choir, and was an active volunteer with the Of One Church One Child Organization. In 2013 she received the Layperson of the Year award.

Preceding her in death was her husband Curtis Ray Broadway in 2009 and infant son, Kirby Dale Broadway.

Surviving are her daughters, Deena Tatum and Wendy Harkey and husband Jeff both of Salisbury, NC; grandchildren, Melinda Hartman and husband Jamie, Michael Tatum and fiancé Lynn, and Jordan and Hunter Harkey; and great-grandson, Joseph Hartman.

The family will receive friends from 6-8 PM Wednesday (July 30) at Summersett Funeral Home.

The funeral service will be held at noon on Thursday (July 31) at Mt. Tabor United Methodist Church, conducted by Rev. John Hunter, Rev. Kris Mares, and Rev. Curtis Goforth. Burial will follow at Mt. Tabor United Methodist Church Cemetery.

Memorials may be made to Mt. Tabor United Methodist Church Maintenance Fund, 4520 Old Mocksville Rd, Salisbury, NC 28144.

“ I will miss Ms. Gertrude so much, especially her sense of humor. She was so loving, and gave of herself to so many people. Her love of her Lord was evident in her life as she shared that love in so many generous and kind ways. We have lost a true matriarch of our church family and such a sweet and loving soul. God called her home, she suffers no more, and she lives forever in the everlasting arms of our Lord. HIS promises are true. My sincere condolences to all the family and if there is any small thing I can do for you please let me know. All my love and prayers for comfort. Lu
