

Glenn Peeler

December 14, 1930 - May 1, 2010

Glenn Peeler, 79 of Salisbury went home to be with his Lord. Though death was sudden, he looked forward to getting a new body, new eyes and no pain he had suffered for 7 years. He passed away Saturday morning, May 1, 2010 at Rowan Regional Medical Center after everything that could be done. He had been a resident at the NC State Veterans Nursing Home for over a year where he had enjoyed playing Bingo and fixing puzzles.

Born December 14, 1930 in Salisbury, he was the son of the late A. G. and Vivian Peeler Snider. Glenn was raised by his grandparents, Daisy and George Alexander Peeler.

He was educated in the Salisbury schools and graduated in 1949 from Boyden High School. He volunteered for military service serving in Japan, he was a Military Police in the US Army.

Employed by Southern Bell for 35 years until the merger with AT&T. After his retirement he opened his own business in 1985 doing telecommunications work. He was well known among many doctors, attorneys, school administrators and businesses as Glenn's Telephone Service.

He is survived by his wife of 52 years, Jean Hall Peeler; son Todd Alexander Peeler and his daughter, Tracey Glynn Peeler of the home; grandchildren,

Morgan Nicole Peeler of Raleigh, Samantha Glynn Peeler of Kannapolis; step-grandson, Johnathan Honeycutt; great-grandchildren, Caleb Honeycutt and Drake Kerley.

Graveside services will be conducted 11:00 AM Tuesday at the US National Cemetery, Statesville Blvd.. He will be honored with Military Graveside Rites conducted by the Rowan County Veterans Honor Guard.

Our heartfelt appreciation to all nurses and staff at the NC State Veterans Nursing Home for their exemplary care and also the Doctors and nurses at Rowan Regional Medical Center.

Memorials may be made to the NC State Veterans Nursing Home – Activities Department, PO Box 599, Salisbury, NC 28145

Tribute Wall

“ I'm sorry for your loss. I see the pain my mother feels over the loss of her husband (my father) of 60 years so I can understand your pain. But Jesus gave us a hope based on the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. Then we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible. Sincerely,
Rosemarie###imported-begin###Rosemarie###imported-end###

June 21, 2010 at 06:28 PM

“ I am deeply saddened for your loss. My sincere condolences.###imported-begin###T###imported-end###

May 07, 2010 at 09:41 AM

“ So sorry to hear of your loss. Just got the info today, May 6. God bless...

Jean, I didn't know you were living in Salisbury..###imported-begin###Telka Mowery Hall Weant###imported-end###

May 06, 2010 at 08:58 AM

“ I met Mr. Peeler while visiting my father, Thomas Hicks, who is also a resident at the NC State Veterans Home.

Mr. Peeler and my dad and I spent several hours putting together jigsaw puzzles at the Veterans Home. Mr. Peeler was a dear man and I was very saddened when my dad told me that he had passed away this past weekend. I know my dad will miss him very much.

My sincere condolences to his family.##imported-begin##Patsy Chrysson##imported-end##

May 03, 2010 at 09:46 PM