“ Amanda, Gail and Don -

Tyler and I just learned of this terrible news, to say we are heartbroken does not say nearly enough.., What a terrific young man Greg was; from U-5 soccer, Pittsgrove Thunder, through E-Town College. Always had that sheepish smile and pleasant, polite way about him. So hard to know of this happening.

Please know our deepest thoughts and prayers are and will remain with you today and as you go forward. You have a terrific brother and son, and we a friend, and always know that. The great memories will help carry you forward.

Best regards and love,

“ Gail & Don,
It is with a broken heart that Carol and I received the news of Gregory's passing. We as parents share in your sorrow. But that sorrow will be brief as we know he has moved on to be with the Lord forever. In the coming days and weeks lean on Him for your strength.

*Philippians 4:3 I can do all this through Him who gives me strength.

“ My heart goes out to the McCann family. Greg was the most kind, selfless person that would give anyone the shirt off his back. His smile was contagious and he could always make you laugh or always be there with a shoulder to cry on. He would always play with my little Maci no matter how busy he was, and always eat my cooking no matter how bad it was-and he would eat all of it like it was good! Please let me know if there is anything Maci or I can do for you guys. We love you all. - Hannah and Maci Hernandez
