“ Since learning a few days ago of David's passing, I have thought about his huge smile and laugh, his positive attitude, love of his friends, and warm personality. I met him during his time in Raleigh, and had the pleasure of playing golf with him many times. His smile was as big as his heart. He was a special person that I'm so glad I had the pleasure of knowing. I'll always remember certain things he said about the game of golf, and tips that he gave me...I don't play golf without thinking of him. These are just a few of the imprints he left..his warm spirit and big smile will live on forever.

“ Judy, Sandy & Andy,

I have been thinking so much of you and your family as you have been going through the valley of this time of loss. I have always heard such wonderful stories from Charlotte and David as your children have shared many experiences of life together. How could I have ever been ready to hear that my child had been taken from me the night before your memorial service. I feel the pain that you must be going through, and I know that it is through the support of many friends and God that we will be able to gather strength from all of the good memories of these fine men.

Love,

“ Having lost a child, I know there is almost nothing anyone can do to ease your incredible loss of your dear son, David. I have vivid memories of David, Andy, and Sandy's smiling faces returning after a float on the Hoh River with my brother, Ken. I can remember hearing from Cousin Judy after my daughter, Shannon, died, and her compassion was there for me. Please know that I am hear for all of you too.

Love,
Cousin Sally

“ I was saddened to learn of the loss of life in concerns of David Goodman. I remember David, Elliot, Christopher, Josh and a few others out there on the golf course @ The Country Club of Salisbury growing and playing golf together, competing and pushing each other to be the best golfer possible. They were live and curious juveniles, but meek, humble and respectful as well. David was quiet but at the same time full of questions. A special kid. Knowing I was coming from East Spencer to work at the club, he often asked questions about the other side of the tracks. I would answer some, but not all. And as he stared off into space imagining the story told, he'd look back at me with that one of a kind smile and say, "cool". Never in my wildest dreams would I've imagined that a guy so full of life would have such a tragic end as this. My heart goes out to the Goodman family, and I pray that you'll find peace and comfort in God and each other through these tough and trying times. You have my heart felt sympathy.

Love you all

“ Mr. & Mrs. Goodman -

Whenever I think of David - I instantly visualize the smile he always had on his face – it was infectious. I knew David for many years and while working at NCSU I was able to run into him often during his studies - even then he was still smiling.

I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the Goodman family during this tough time. Losing a loved one is never easy so I will continue to pray for your family's strength during this time of loss.

With heartfelt sympathy,

“ Dear Goodman Family,

My sincerest condolences to the entire Goodman family and to all who were touched by his life.

I didn't know David as well as so many others did from Salisbury, but I do know that he had a kind soul, was such a nice person, and when he smiled, you couldn't help but smile in return. I last ran into David a few years ago in Raleigh at a venue where Chatham County Line was playing. We talked for an hour or more that night, and even though we didn't hang out in high school, he spoke with me like I was a long lost friend that he'd known forever.

May your family find peace and comfort in knowing what a special person David was in this lifetime, and what a gift it was to even know him for a moment.

*Sincerely,

“ Hi Mr. and Mrs. Goodman,

I loved David's cheerful smile and kind, warm disposition. I don't ever remember him being mean to anyone, ever.

I know it might sound funny, but I had a dream about him last night, very realistic, that we all were at the city park and David was there with us, smiling as usual. We all got to talk with him around the pond and tell him how much he meant to us. It was just a dream but it brought me a lot of peace and somehow when I awoke, I knew David is at peace too.

I think it says a great deal that David is a person I knew for a short time so many years ago, and still his passing has touched me with strikingly strong feelings of loss and regret. If someone who knew him superficially can be touched so deeply by his life, I can't imagine how far the reach of his smile and warm heart has been to others who knew him more profoundly.

I wish you all the best in your recovery from you loss but I do celebrate the life of a beautiful soul who touched many.
