

Harold Wayne Hinshaw

July 29, 1946 - January 14, 2024

Harold Wayne Hinshaw, a resident of Salisbury, NC, died Sunday, January 14, 2024, after a short illness. Mr. Hinshaw was born July 29, 1946, in Randleman, NC, the son of the late Kathern Hunt and Jacob "Jake" Worth Hinshaw.

Wayne was a graduate of Randleman High School, class of 1964 and went on to graduate from Catawba College with a degree in Political Science in 1968. From a young age, Wayne enjoyed sports and photography. He began taking pictures in high school, continued in college and after graduation he began his career as a school yearbook portrait photographer, where he became a top salesman. Wayne's true passion started when he began working at The Salisbury Post as a photojournalist. Wayne covered photography at the Post for more than 50 years, still taking pictures as recently as November 2023. During his tenure at the Post, he covered everything from presidential campaigns to parades, however his main love was covering sports. His photography work appeared in both local and national publications. Wayne won over 50 awards during his career, including Carolina's Press Photographer of the Year. Wayne was most proud of his induction into the Salisbury-Rowan Hall of Fame, receiving the Horace Billings Lifetime Achievement Award in November 2022. Wayne loved Rowan County and always wanted the story of his community, the events, and people to be documented and told through his photography.

Wayne married Sammie Steele in July 1968 and was an active member of John Calvin Presbyterian Church. Wayne is survived by his wife of 55 years, his brother Gary Hinshaw and wife Peggy of Randleman, NC; his two children, Chad Hinshaw and wife Emmy of Denver, CO; and Heather Peoples and husband John of Gastonia, NC; three grandchildren, Kathryn and Evan Peoples of Gastonia, NC and Audrey Hinshaw of Denver, CO; and his niece, Cinamon Loyd and husband Ashton of Mooresville, NC.

“ Dear Sammie, Heather and Chad, Over the last week I've read multiple articles written by Wayne and viewed lots of photos taken by him. I knew he was a newspaper photographer, but I had no idea that he was so talented or so revered by the people in your hometown. I only knew him as Chad's Dad, Audrey's Papa, Sammie's husband. May God's peace be with you all as you negotiate the days ahead. You will be in the thoughts and prayers of many.

Blessings today and in the weeks as you all move forward.

“ Wayne was one of the kindest men I have ever known. Growing up across the street Wayne was present for so much of my life; snow days, trick or treating, prom, high school graduation, even my late in life college graduation were all documented in photos by this caring man. All of my love to Sammie, Chad, and Heather. Prayers for healing and comfort during this difficult time.
