“ I first met Big D, a number of years ago. He made such an impression on me. His love for his precious Gayle was so evident. I could tell that his world was his family. He loved Jonathan so much and adored Angela. We were actually looking at houses for the 4 of them to maybe consider moving into together. He was more concerned about a house that everyone else would be happy with. He whispered in my ear, I can live anywhere if they are happy. He kept telling me to come to their house and he would give me a tour of his train station, and I regret that I never got to do that. He loved the Lord and he was one proud man, so proud of his loving family. Everyone should be so fortunate to have a dad like Harold and he told me everyone should be so lucky to have a son like mine. I know that he will be greatly missed. It is so hard to give up our parents. He was lost without his love, he was lonely for his love and now they are together again, and we will see them again. I am praying for Jonathon and Angela and the rest of his family. Many prayers and much love, Dovie
