

Mr. Harry Glenn Naas

August 16, 1923 - May 4, 2015

Harry Glenn Naas, 91, passed peacefully on May 4, 2015 while under Hospice Care at Veterans Affairs Medical Center, Salisbury, North Carolina.

Harry was born August 16, 1923 in St. Louis, Missouri. Harry was in Army during the II World War and was a P.O.W. for 100 days then released when the war ended. He was honored with a Purple Heart for his bravery of service to his country. After the war Harry became a dedicated farmer in the state of Illinois.

Preceded in death by his son Richard Glenn Naas of Enfield, Illinois

Harry is survived by his wife of 70 years, Anna Mae Naas of Mt. Ulla, NC and his son Charles Ray Naas "Chuck" (Veronica) of Mooresville, NC; grandchildren, Charles R. Naas Jr. and Harley Naas of Mooresville, NC.

Harry will be missed by all who knew him. He will be laid to rest on May 7, 2015; 1:00 pm at the US National Cemetery, Statesville Blvd. location, Salisbury, NC with Military Honors conducted by the Rowan County Honor Guard and National Guard Honor Guard.

Summersett Funeral Home is serving the Naas family. Online condolences and memorial tributes may be made at www.summersettfuneralhome.com.

Tribute Wall

HN

“ I love you grandpa miss you all the time. Still with grandma every week i knows that she misses you. I'm trying to buy your house from dad. He's a tuff bargean. I'm sure he got that from you And mom she miss you guys too. I'm still 6'2" I remember you always use to ask every time I came over we still have all the measurement in the back closet of the game room. I just want to say I loved you and hope your wood working shop up there is top of the notch tools and machinery. Rest easy grandpa

harley naas - March 05, 2019 at 07:10 PM