“ Hazel is my grandmother and she was one of the most important people in my life. Her love for her family and the Lord was out of this world. Her while life was her family and serving the Lord. She is just the kindest person you can meet and she has so much love to give and she always wanted to spread the word. She is truly missed and I want everyone to know how amazing she is. She was the most caring, sensitive, sassy and loving woman I know. I love you Mawmaw and I'll keep all my promises I made to you. Until we meet again...
