“ Samantha, Autumn, and Dakota, I know this is really hard for all 3 of you right now because when I lost my Mom last Mother's Day, I thought my world had come to a end; that my life would never be the same. Well, that was true but knowing that as long as I walked with God with my life, I would see her again. You have to hold your memories very close to your heart. I met your Henry a few times over at Julie's and each time he was such a sweet man and you could tell he had such a caring and loving way; but also had that sense of humor about him. He shared some very sweet stories with Julie; about how much he loved his children and how he worried about you all so much and wanted so much for you all. I hope with time your will pain will be eased with the many memories of Henry. May peace be with Henry's Parents, his sister and the rest of the Family also. Connie Overcash

“ You were the closest thing I ever had to a brother. At times we fought but you were always my friend! The best father a kid could ask for! No greater a soul, that would lay down his life for a perfect stranger. You knew when to be silent but stood up for what was right and just! You had values most men to do not ever acquire. You will be missed greatly!
