“ I did not know "Bob" long but I treasure every moment he spent telling memories. He was a quiet man but full of grins. I am from the North, a "yankee" but Bob and Marie welcomed me with open arms. I would pull in and he would be fiddling in his shed, workshop, or on the tractor. No matter what, he would join Marie and I sitting on the back porch with a very large welcome grin. I got the biggest kick out of him cutting the end of his shoe off because his big toe always seemed to be sore, Ingenious. He will be dearly missed on my visits to Salisbury. Much love to the Graham Family. See you soon.
