“ Love, support, protector and fun are just a few words that describe my dear sweet Aunt Hilda. From the very first she was there for me from buying outfits as a baby, supporting me with problems that I faced to the many Sunday afternoons visits at Mother's. After my Mom died she along with other women in the family was there to help guide my way and give much needed advise.

During the years she also made sure that the family had lots of good things to eat when we were all together. From fudge and my favorite cake at Christmas to home made ice cream in the summer.

She had a way to make people feel special.

She will be missed.
