“ My husband Bruce and I attend Victory Temple in Concord -- this is how we came to know Howard. We had the blessing of attending his and Virginia's wedding one year and a few months ago. Although we did not have the privilege of knowing him well, we enjoyed seeing him at services. He always had a warm smile and loving spirit, one which reflected his love for our Lord. We are deeply saddened and will miss dear Howard, but we rejoice in knowing he is with Jesus in glory in his forever heavenly home, forever free of pain and sorrow.

“ *Virgina and family,
May God give you peace & comfort at this time and the days to come. Our prayers are with you all at this sad time. Howard was a joy to know, just wished we would have met him sooner. We will cherish the short time we did know Howard till we meet in Heaven.##imported-begin##Roy&tinie Davis##imported-end##*

“ My sincere condolences to the family of Howard. A very sweet person, and dad to his family. Howard will be missed so much, but God Bless the wonderful reunion that is taking place with his loved ones gone before. We will never forget you, and all the things you stood for and taught.

*Love and prayer,
