“ You never know how family members mold your personality. My Uncle Ivan did that for me. He gave me:

Love of family – seeing the loving relationship he had with my Mother, his Sister Sylvia and the love he showed toward his children. He supported his brother Lawrence when he was a singer with the Channels. Uncle Ivan took me to see him perform at the Apollo.

Love of religion – he and his wife Aunt Jean were my Godparents. Uncle Ivan also took me to see the 10 Commandments at the Lowes movie theater.

Strength and Confidence – Uncle Ivan taught me to ride a bicycle. He taught me to box when I was a member of the YMCA on 135th Street. He also took me to my boxing matches.

Uncle Ivan was a Proud, Strong, Religious, Loving, Caring man. He was quiet, but you always saw the love in his eyes and in the smile on his face.

Uncle Ivan was proud of his family – children, grand children and great grand children

I will remember Uncle Ivan, my Godfather, standing proud and strong, standing up straight, chest out.

My family and I send our Love to our Cousins.

Uncle Ivan I Love you and will miss you, your Godson, Lewis Jr.
