“ Beverly & Jim, my deepest sympathies go out to you at this time of need. I have not lost a parent and therefore can not totally understand what you are going through. I have lost grandparents and close family members and I know that there is nothing that anyone can say or do to help you through this except God.

Trust in the Lord with all of your heart and lean not to your own understanding. . . It was simply God's timing for His son to come on home to Him. Only time and God will help you heal through your grieving but know that you do not grieve as others. You know where your father is and you know he is much much happier there than he ever could be here.

I love you and will have your family in my prayers. Just know your dad is enjoying his mansion right now and rejoice and praising with the Lord. His last breath here was his first breath in Heaven. . .

Love you
