“ I have so MANY great memories of Jackie, I'm not sure what I want to share! We used to joke about her being late a lot of the time and I remember her saying "there's one place I won't be late for!" She would laugh, but never would tell me where!!!
She tried SO HARD to learn to crochet and knit.....hilarious were her self-critiques!
Soon after my mother passed, I asked Jackie if she would like some nightgown sets that belonged to my mother. She was delighted! I knew she loved them because she thanked me often over a period of years.
I almost never saw her without her precious dog.....
We used to sit and talk about our grandchildren....how happy they made her!
There is so much I could share. But I want to leave you with this: Jackie was the sweetest, funniest, most good-natured friend I had and I do - and will - miss her very much. Her voice. Her laughter. Her eyes. Her advice.
Rest in peace, sweet sister in the Lord. Tell Wayne I said hey!
