

Jacqueline Dandison Wooten

July 23, 1957 - January 10, 2013

Jacqueline "Jackie" Dandison Wooten, 55, of Salisbury, NC passed away Thursday, January 10, 2013 at Rowan Regional Medical Center.

Jackie is a 1975 graduate of Salisbury High School, a graduate of UNC-Charlotte, with graduate degrees from Greensboro College and UNC-Chapel Hill. She worked for many years as a Radiation Therapist in Charlotte and Salisbury.

She was a member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church. She was a Cursillista and found great solace in her group reunion when she was able to make it. Jackie was an excellent cook, enjoyed her book club and canasta group. She was passionate about her daughter, Anna, substituting at her school when Anna was young. She also loved spending time with all the little ones of her family.

Born July 23, 1957 in Salisbury, she was the daughter of Sister Susie Dandison, RSM of Mocksville and the late John Malcolm Dandison. Survivors include her daughter Anna Wooten, Salisbury; Anna's father, Dr. Wayne Wooten, Salisbury; two brothers, Alex Dandison (Phyllis) of Greensboro, Alan Dandison (Ann) of Salisbury; and sister Cris Brincefield (John) of Salisbury. Nephews and nieces Joel Brincefield (Amy Durba), Josh (Meredith) Brincefield, Liza Phillips (Mike), Ashley Purcell (Tom), Elizabeth (Aaron) Partridge, Erin Morton, John Dandison (Kristen), Andrew Dandison, Mariann Dandison, Paul Dandison, Grandnephews and nieces: Bo, James, and Vivian Brincefield, Owen Purcell, and Will Phillips.

A Mass of Christian burial will be held Saturday, (Jan. 19,) at Sacred Heart Catholic Church at 1:00 PM, with Father John T. Putnam, main celebrant, officiating. A reception will immediately follow the service in Brincefield Hall of Sacred Heart Catholic School. Burial will be at City Memorial Park Cemetery at 3:30 PM, where Jackie will be buried beside her father.

Memorials may be made to: Rowan Regional Medical Center Foundation, 130 Mocksville Avenue

Salisbury, NC 28144-3324; Holy Angels, Inc., P.O. Box 710, Belmont, NC 28012.
