

Jacquelyn Fleming

August 17, 1947 - March 4, 2013

Jacquelyn “Jackie” Fleming, 65, of Salisbury and formerly of Whiteville, passed away Monday, March 4, 2013 at Rowan Regional Medical Center.

Born August 17, 1947 in Salisbury, she was the daughter of the late Gwendolyn “Jinks” Bailey Fleming and Robert H. Fleming.

She was educated in the Woodleaf schools and graduated from West Rowan High School and Asbury College, Wilmore, KY. While at Woodleaf and West Rowan High School she was taught Bible by Miss Catherine Brazell which influenced her life.

After graduation, she went to Whiteville where she taught in the city schools from 1969-2004 before retiring.

She was a member of Unity Presbyterian Church, the National Educators Association (NEA) and the North Carolina Association of Educators (NCAE).

While growing up as a child, Vacation Bible School at Unity Presbyterian Church made an impression on Jackie. She was devoted to her Lord and was involved with various churches in Whiteville where she enjoyed teaching mission books at local Baptist churches.

Over the past 18 months, Jackie had been in the hospital or nursing homes due to a number of health issues. After almost 43 years in Whiteville, she looked upon her move to the Brian Center of Salisbury “as an adventure” and as the will of God, so she could be near her twin sister, Gwen. They had good times together. She made friends and was thankful for the service of Tabernacle Baptist Church on Sundays at the Brian Center. After the service she and Gwen had a sing along with residents.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her sisters, Nell F. Deaton, and Louise Fleming and brother-in-law, Dwight Deaton.

Those left to cherish her memory are her twin sister, Gwendolyn Fleming Holliman and husband Nathaniel of Woodleaf; nephew, Reitzel Deaton and wife Cathy of Zebulon; aunt, Pauline Fleming of Woodleaf; 2 great nieces, 1 great nephew, 1 great great nephew, many cousins, and friends, including Sonja Sellers and family of Whiteville.

A memorial service will be conducted 2:00 PM – Saturday (Mar. 9) at Unity Presbyterian Church with the Rev. Phillip Hagen, officiating. Interment will follow in the church cemetery.

The family will receive friends in the Fellowship Hall at Unity Presbyterian Church following the committal service.

A memorial service will be conducted in Whiteville at a later date.

Memorials may be made “Memorial for Jackie Fleming” at the Child Evangelism Fellowship of North Carolina, 420 W. Academy St., Fuqua Varina, NC 27526-2163

“ Jackie will truly be missed. She left a great testimony behind. I remember her coming to Madison Apts. and teaching Sunday School for us. She was always smiling and spoke softly. Jackie was always doing little acts of kindness. She found out that one of her former school students lived there and one day she surprised him with a meal from McDonalds. Another thing I remember about Jackie is her big, beautiful, sparkling eyes. My heart and prayers go out to the family.##imported-begin##Penny Hoprich##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy to the Fleming family. Ms.Fleming was a awesome teacher who loved her students. I'm a graduate of Whiteville High School and i remember her classes and the way it brought her joy when her students did well. She's touched countless lives through the classrooms of WHS & will be sorely missed.##imported-begin##Jerome Jackson##imported-end##

“ To the family of Jackie Fleming. Was very saddened to learn of Miss Fleming's home going. I know without any doubt that she is strolling over heaven. Miss Fleming taught me 9th grade English in 1970. I never heard her raise her voice to anyone. Always polite to all. I know she will be greatly missed. “ Ms. Queen Jackie is what I called my friend. See was a very sweet and gentle loving lady. I will miss her greatly and dearly. I enjoyed every minute I spent with her at Liberty Nursing Home in Whiteville, she could always hear me coming down the hallway when I wore my boots and we would laugh to start with. I have seen her very sick and heal many times by the grace of God. She left me with many great gifts, love, Bible verses, and getting to know her twin sister Gwen and husband who has the patiences of Job. These are priceless things I will always have in my heart. She taught my son Zackre how people needed help at times when they were sick and the chance to help World Changers on her home which talks about all the time. She showed him love and gave all my children her time as they were growing up. They will also miss her greatly.
