“ I pray that God gives you an abundance of love, and comfort, wrapping his arms around everyone in your family, as you all grieve the loss of a great man, as the stories I've read describe who he grew to up to be. My prayers and condolences for your family. I am truly so sorry.

“ I didn't know Keith personally. However, I had the honor of writing about him a few years ago for an article. I interviewed Alisha and she shared many wonderful stories about her father. I pray that you all find comfort in the priceless memories you all shared with Keith.

“ Keith will be missed by so many. His steadfast mannerisms, calmness, and devotion to God’s and his family left an impact on anyone who knew him. He was kind, thoughtful, always ready to lend a hand, positive, devoted, cheerful, and always wore a welcoming smile. Much love to all of his family. I know they will all continue his legacy of Christian values and living life as he would have.
