

James Franklin "Jimbo" Cloer III

June 8, 1974 - November 2, 2017

Mr. James Franklin "Jimbo" Cloer, III, of Salisbury, NC passed away Thursday, November 2, 2017 at Novant Medical Center Northeast after fighting an 8 month battle with cancer.

Born June 8, 1974 in Salisbury, NC he was the son of Sharon Clement and the late James Cloer, II.

He attended North Rowan High School. Jimbo loved the outdoors. He really enjoyed going hunting and fishing. He would always brag about how he caught the biggest fish of the day. He was known as "The Crappie Slayer", now in heaven, he will be hunting and fishing every day and he'll never miss another Steeler's game.

Along with his father, preceding him in death is his grandfather, Olin Stamper. Those left to cherish his memory are his sister, Angela Williams; grandmother, Becky Stamper; aunts, Debbie Stamper (Tony), Terri Stamper (Jose), Teresa Cutshaw (Ronnie), Debbie Broadway (Darrell); uncles, Brad Stamper (Mona), Olen Stamper; nieces, Nicole Cloer (Chris McDaniel), Marissa Williams; nephew, Darren Williams; along with several cousins and friend, Dana Starnes.

Graveside service will be held at 1PM Thursday, November 9 at Chestnut Hill Cemetery.

Summersett Funeral Home is serving the Cloer family. Online condolences may be made at www.summersettfuneralhome.com.
