Beloved husband, brother, uncle and friend, James “Jim” Perry Fuller passed away peacefully with his wife by his side, Sunday, May 15, 2022. A life-long resident of Rowan County, he was born in Spencer, North Carolina to John Perry and Lucy Edith Roper Fuller on April 28, 1931. His family was blessed to have him, a gentle, generous, kind man, through all his 91 years. He loved nothing more than spending time with his family and friends and never met a dog he didn't like.

An interment service is planned for 2:00 p.m., Monday, May 23, at Lebanon Lutheran Church, Cleveland, North Carolina with Pastor Carroll Robinson officiating.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Lebanon Lutheran Church, 1200 Thompson Road, Cleveland, NC 27013 or Community Home Care and Hospice, 1308 Davie Avenue, Statesville, NC 28677.

“ Dear Judy and Family,

I always enjoyed seeing you and Jim whenever I came back to Lebanon Lutheran Church. I always got a nice welcome from both of you. Unless I have the date wrong, I think that you got married on my birthday (August 24th). I remember Mama going to your wedding.

So sorry for your loss.

“ I got to know Jim when I worked in the Cooleemee Post Office, he was a favorite customer. He was so kind, always in a good mood. We loved to compare stories of any wildlife we'd seen, from deer to skunks. I'll miss him, even though I hadn't seen him lately.
