“ I have alot of memories of Mr. Barringer. He taught at East Rowan High School when I went there. But the fondest memories are those of the Cartex Mill swimming pool where he was lifeguard. At that pool I learned how to swim and played with Libby and Melanie. He will be missed.

“ I was in Mr.B's US History class in 1969 at East Rowan.He was very strict but also very good.I also work as a CNA at ALADC. It was an honor to be able to do something for him. He also resoled many of my families shoes yrs. ago.His wife was my 3rd grade teacher at Faith school. Sandra was in the class also.I am very greatful to have had Mr. B and his family in my life and want the family to know they are in my prayers at this time. Paula D.
