“ First cousin Janie went to Heaven one day before our Uncle Ed. I'm sure they all are having a grand reunion in Heaven. Mom, Clara Howard Hennessy and our family send our heart-felt condolences to Janie's family. Mom shares a couple memories for the family. 1. She enjoyed when Uncle Hebe's girls came to their Aunt Mary & Uncle Oscar's house (mom's grandparents) and how they'd take Janie in granny's room and they play dress up and fix up "little Janie" who was a few years younger, while Sammy played ball with her older brother Rocky in the front yard. 2. She remembers when as a child Carolyn opened the car door and fell out and got scraped up (she thinks Janie sounded the alarm to their parents when it happened) 3. Last she enjoyed all the good times they had and how her grandpa and their Uncle Oscar would make dish pans full of popcorn for the kids to enjoy. Love and prayers and hopes these memories will bring some smiles. Tommy Walker/Clara Howard Hennessy
