“ There are so many memories between my sister and I, I wouldn't know where to begin, but We enjoyed each other we were teased about because we look so much alike, even though we were five years between us! Her grandchildren, and even her some of her own children had to look twice before they weren't sure which one was which I miss her so much but at least she's at peace and back with her husband, Prayers for the rest of the family! It is just hard to put feelings into words, You earned your wings sis fly high
