“ Jeff was my first boy friend and my first movie date, the first boy to hold my hand. We spent hundreds of hours on the phone and I still remember the laughs we shared. I never forget Jeff.

“ My earliest memory of Jeffrey is as a little boy he sat patiently by his mother at the Spencer Little League while his dad coached the older boys. He was such a sweet child.

Then I encountered him as a student when I went to work at NRHS. He patiently helped me to learn to use a computer. I called on him all the time to assist me as I learned to use the word processing on the Apple computers that were upstairs in the library. I was amazed at all the skills he seemed to have been born with.

I am so sorry for Jeff's early homegoing. I pray that your pain caused by the vacancy in your family will be eased by your own precious memories. You all are in my prayers.

Blessings and love,

“ He will always be remembered as you share the stories and the memories of how he lived his life and how very much he meant, may you find comfort...And, throughout this difficult time, may you also know the deep sympathy and concern that is felt for you and all your family. I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish, I have observed the faith.-2Timothy 4:7. As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep; I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me. -Psalms 3:5##imported-begin##Magallon Family##imported-end##

“ On behalf of the Barnes family (including that of my brother Emmanuel) and the North Rowan High School Class of 1991, I would like to extend our heartfelt condolences to Jeff's family. Jeff was a valued member of our class. We plan to celebrate his life and those of our other classmates who have passed on at our 20th class reunion in 2011. We would love to have someone from the family attend. May God bless you and give you peace.
