“ Dear Beaver Family,

I am so sorry to hear about Jeff. My heart goes out to you. I've been thinking a lot of what he must have been going through and how all of you must be feeling.

I remember the last time I saw Jeff. My children and I were sitting on the hill by the pond at the farm watching him fly fish. My kids and I know nothing about fly fishing and were transfixed as he brought the rod back and could shoot out the lure to exactly where he wanted and then bring it back. It was so soothing and meditative to watch. He was aiming for the end of what used to be the pier. That's where we knew ever since we were kids that the fish liked to hang out.

There is a peace in the early morning on the surface of the pond, smooth as glass, out in the country, removed from it all, only disturbed by the ripples of the jumping fish. I hope Jeff has found that peace.

Over the past couple decades he struck me as a troubled soul with a good heart. He was always willing to lend a hand. Always patient and kind to my kids. And someone to count on at the farm. I am truly sorry for your loss.

I wish that we could have been at the service. I hope that sometime soon we can be together, tell stories, and remember the good times. Until then you have my deepest and most sincere sympathies.

“ Jeff was my cousin and a dear friend to me. He had unconditional love for everyone, and had a heart of gold. He made mistakes, and always found a way to make up for them by going above and beyond for the people he held true to his heart. I will remember him with a smile as I think about our fishing adventures and all the times with our family at the farm. He did so much to help out and make my wedding day absolutely beautiful, including trimming the tree in the frontyard to look like an umbrella just like Nanny would've wanted it to look:) Jeff, I will smile when I think of you, and I will remember you always. I am quite sure you are with your beautiful mom in Heaven now and are happy. I love you Jeff, I was blessed to have you as my cousin and my dear friend.
