“ I don't know if you remember me, but I worked with Jeff at Trinity Oaks...I always enjoyed sitting in long meetings with him....between the two of us we found comic relief in our totally inappropriate responses to issues at hand....he was always a good sport and hard worker. I remember how excited he was when Logan was born....I was out of town when he passed away. Saw his obituary while catching up on my newspapers. I am so sorry for your loss. He was a great guy. God's blessing for all of you....

“ Dear 'big brother' Jeff, many fun times were spent at 521. Thinking of you, Brad and Jill and how you all were a special family and friend to me, the skinny blond girl with braces that befriended you all in 1972. You were such a role model for me back then when Jill and I didn't know anything, and you knew it all! Rest sweetly, dear Jeff, eternally forever and ever.
My heart is filled with sorrow for Brad, Jill and family. Join now, your dad, mom and grandma and all those beloved laid to rest before you.
