“ To the family, I am so sorry for your loss. I did not know Jenna personally, but I wish to send my condolences. May find comfort as I have in knowing that God also feels your pain, and He actually yearns to bring back our loved ones to life. He has promised us that he will do this, as well as rid the earth of death and suffering forever. Revelation 21:4 reads, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore." “ Dianne, Mike & Family

We were shocked to hear about the passing of Jenna. Words cannot express how we feel. For a parent losing a child has to be one of the worst things imaginable.

When all of yaw were down for aunt Earline's funeral. We saw Maddox for the first time. What a fine boy. Kidding with her I told her she could leave him with us so granny and grandpa wouldn't spoil him. But she wouldn't even talk about that "Ha".

Jenna, Gary & Maddox made such a beautiful family. They were young with a bright future. It looked like everything was going their way. No one knew that Jenna's time here on earth would be so short. But remember we may not under stand, but the old man above always knows what he's doing. Although she was young, he needed her to help watch over all of us and that's what she is doing now.

She is gone in body, but you will see her every time you look at Maddox.

Love Joe & Shelby Harrell

Giiiiirl, let me tell you, your spunky, energetic, sports-enthusiast(and by sports I'm referring to your complete and utter obsession with Duke), animal loving, always giving, constantly sharing self will be more than missed. BUT you have left behind so many memories that everyone will cherish and look back on and laugh at how great you are. Your memory will bring back smiles to those who knew you. We miss you but we also know that where you're is absolutely amazing. You'll be able to watch over everyone now, including that handsome son of yours. I'm sure he's got ALOT of you in him and everytime your family and husband look at him they'll know they still have a piece of you here on earth. Sleep peacefully Jenna and we'll see you again in a better life.
