

Mrs. Jennifer Bozeman Loftin

May 2, 1952 - September 20, 2013

Jennifer B. Loftin, 61, of Salisbury, passed away suddenly Friday, September 20, 2013 at her home.

She was born May 2, 1952 in Wake County to Betty and Stan Bozeman of Salisbury.

Jennifer was a graduate of West Rowan High School, and received a bachelors' degree in Elementary Education from Pfeiffer College. Most recently Jennifer worked in the children's room at the Salisbury Library. She taught art for Rockingham County Schools for 18 years and worked at Rowan Public Library in Salisbury since 2004, she was also a volunteer tutor for the Rowan County Literacy Council.

She loved her family and friends, and she enjoyed working with children and traveling.

Those left to cherish her memory are her mother and father Betty and Stan Bozeman, of Salisbury, two sons, Michael Loftin, of Myrtle Beach, Nicholas Loftin and wife Gwen of Raleigh, and her husband Thomas Louis Moore Jr. of Salisbury.

Service will be held at 2:30PM Tuesday (Sept. 24) at Summersett Memorial Chapel with Brenda Maddock officiating. Burial will follow at South River United Methodist Church Cemetery.

Visitation will be 6-8PM Monday (Sept 23) at Summersett Funeral Home.

In lieu of flowers memorials may be made to Rowan Public Library Foundation (Jennifer Loftin Endowment) 201 West Fisher St. Salisbury, NC 28144 or Rowan County Literacy Council PO Box 95 Salisbury, NC 28145-0095.

“ Dear Loftin family,

I am sure my family is just one of many unknown to you who were touched deeply by "Miss Jennifer." She always greeted us cheerfully by name and was quick to share her warm, radiant smile.

As she watched our son grow through the years, she would often share anecdotes about her own boys, of whom she was enormously proud. Because of her, and her fellow magic-makers at RPL, we are raising a voracious reader who loves books--and libraries.

Though we are strangers, we are friends because of your daughter, wife, and mother. We share your sorrow and mourn your loss, which is our loss as well.

Sincerely,

*Anne Waters

“ I will always remember Jennifer's smile. Her caring and loving ways. I thought of Jennifer as a second mom. She will be truly missed forever. I can't believe you're gone but now you are with GOD momma and he will guide you though life until Tom gets there. I love you and miss you so very much. For the family, I am truly sorry for your loss.

“ I'd only recently met Ms. Jennifer. I brought my kids to the art class she taught at the library. She was so sweet and patient with all the children there, and my kids really liked her. I am completely shocked by her passing. Please know that the family is in my prayers.

“ *Ms. Jennifer was truly a wonderful lady. My children adored her and loved talking with her when we went to the library once or twice a week. My daughter said going to the library won't be the same. The family is in our thoughts and prayers. Wendi, Chase, Caylee and
