

Jerami Anne Massey

May 22, 2022

On May 22, 22, Jerami Anne Massey went home to be with her Lord and savior. If you got to be one of the lucky ones to cross her path, you'd know she was one of the most unique, hard-loving, loyal, honest, spit fire, hippie chicks you'd ever meet. Her loss leaves a tremendous gap in everyone's heart she loved.

She was survived by her soul mate, Clyde Wilson Massey, III. He was her happiness; he was her life; with him she was finally home.

Jerami was a loving mother to her 3 B's (sons): Benjamin Dakota Odom (Bri), Brisen Tayner Preslar (Abigail), and Braylen Kellett Preslar (Hailey); and step-daughter, Abigale Massey. Jerami was "Bama" to her grandchildren, Esabella Kellett Preslar, Benjamin Duke Odom, and Adeline Grace Odom.

She was survived by her parents: Randall Hawkins (daddy), Donna Young (mama), Jerry Gass (father), Linda Gass (her Linda Lee), and Clyde & Judith Massey, Jr. (Buckeye & mom in-law).

Siblings: Jeramiah Gass, Jenna Keene (Bryan), Jaykob Hawkins, Cindy Roberts, Sandy Lockhart, Freddy Hawkins, Kimberly Myers (Mark), Rebecca Massey, and many other siblings who loved her as a sister by birth, marriage, love, or choice.

Nieces & Nephews: Presleigh Nycole Russell, Kolsten and Kaleena Keene, Kylie, Savannah, Tessa, JJ, & Jonathan Gass, Lauren Myers, Julia Best (Steven), Michelle Padgett; and more uncles, aunts, cousins, friends, and family than we have enough page for.

On her Cricut sticker, she left a message for us all: Faith, it does not make things easy, it makes them possible. Luke 1:37. Roll Tide Forever! Say hi to Great Gran & Grampy for us!

The family will receive friends 11 a.m. -12 p.m. Monday (May 30th) at Summersett Funeral Home. The funeral service will follow at 12 p.m. in Summersett Memorial Chapel with Rev. Chris Williams officiating.

Summersett Funeral Home is serving the Massey family. Online condolences may be made at www.summersettfuneralhome.com.

“ Jerami became my sister a few months after first seeing her and little brother Jeremiah playing basketball in their backyard in Fayetteville, NC. They were really ballin back there & putting on quite the show. Jerami was probably just 16 or 17 but quite a spitfire even then. That was a quality that Jerami never grew out of 😎. Soon there after, I became a redheaded (well on my way now to bald headed) stepchild of the Gass family. I think that was a poor man's adoption of sorts. With that, Jerami became my sister for life. Come to think of it I don't recall her calling me by name, instead I was always her redheaded step brother or brother for short. That always felt really good. I was even promoted to Pit Crew status one summer, years later. So many laughs, so much love, card games, spoons and many joyous memories that I will always treasure. See you when I get there, my dark headed stepsister. ❤️

“ Jerami has been a part of my life since she she was just a baby. Like my wife Kathy said, "you always knew where you stood with her". We spent many holidays and family events with her. Her mom, dad, father, grand parents and many of her aunts and uncles were long time friends. We will miss her so much ! Thoughts and prayers to her family and friends. We will all someday join her on her journey. Guy and Kathy Satterfield

“ Can't stop thinking about when I took you out on an overnight Birthday date. The trips to Tennessee to see your family. Brisen's first words were with a yankee accent tracta, and cracka you were beside yourself when you heard him. You didn't know what I wanted when I asked for an elastic or something off the bureau. We were truly the North and the South colliding and what great memories that collision made. Love you! Berley

“ Going through the tables at the Amazon resale store She would pickup an item and say Clyde will kill me if I get one more thing and I would say it's only 3 dollars he won't care go ahead. And we would just laugh and she would say oh OK and get it. I sure am going to miss my shopping buddy.

“ You were my one. My one that shared the same experiences in life and we always had one another to talk it through when it went nuts. I honestly don't know what we are all gonna do without you. My friend, my chosen sister, my family. I love you so...and I am going to miss you so very very much. My heart breaks knowing that I will never get to hear you bug me relentlessly saying Roll Tide all football season long. This is not goodbye. This is 'I will see you in a little while' my beautiful life long friend.

“ It says Share A Memory.... well where do I start? We used to Have a group of girls that met once a week and had ourselves a lil " Club " Really had alot of fun at our Meetings. Then one time she had heard of a new drink that We Had to Try... well I won't tell the rest of that one lol. She Actually got Me on the BACK of a motorcycle I DONT ride on the back ohhh she loved that one lol... the Smoke out in Rockingham, Now we had a Blast! Saw Shaq Race Dale Jr, countless bands, Poker Runs for charity, (all along I was watching a beautiful flower just a growing) saw her Blossom when she Met Clyde's bologna eating self. Saw a clock that said 987 at their house and ya just don't see that Anywhere else! Share A Memory huh? Shoot we've been through several chapters of the book of life. I could fill this thing up But I'll end it with the Memories of sitting on that Pew at CHURCH and the SMILES when they'd come in just a little late sliding in beside me. " GIRLLL I SWEAR"
