“ J.J. was so sweet and such a Daddy's boy! I will always be grateful for the day, just weeks ago, that he joined Aidan and me on a walk around the neighborhood. He had no pants or shoes but he started after us so I scooped him up and brought him along. Boy was he heavy! He walked in the grass behind Aidan, half running to keep up, never crying if he tripped just got up and kept going. It was a hot day, both boys were red in the face so we took a rest in the shade the shade before we went back to the house. It is so sad to lose such a sweet child from this earth, J.J. will be missed, but we will keep him alive in our hearts and will forever be thankful for the precious moments we were able to share with him.
