“ Dear Susie, Chris Kyle and family. Many years of treasured friendship and many memories--enough to last a lifetime--He was a special friend, the kind that we are blessed to have had. Our hearts ache with yours and share your sorrow. But know how much he will enjoy the wonders of Heaven. Love Sam and Ruth###imported-begin##ruth and sam martin###imported-end##

“ Dear Family, I am so deeply full of sorrow at learning of Jerry's death. At times when it seemed that I didn't have any friends at all, Jerry was standing by my side with his 110% support. What a truly good man he was. I am sure things will never be the same in Heaven now that Jerry has arrived. My prayers are with you as you go through this very difficult time of grief.###imported-begin##Angie M Sell###imported-end##

“ Jerry was a very good friend,throughout high school and until recently, where my wife, Ann, and I sat with him at our fifty-fifth high school reunion, talking about things in the past and enjoying fellowship between old friends. He was a very special person and I will miss him, and that beautiful smile so much.##imported-begin##Fred Gillis##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: Jerry was a very special friend, a wonderful husband, father and grandfather. He will leave a great void in all our lives, but what a wonderful reunion we will have in Heaven. We can all rejoice in knowing that he is with the Lord and has no more health problems.One of his favorite sayings, "Put a peg right there" when he needed to interupt a conversation will long be remembered, as well as "Dear Gussie" when something went wrong. Our love and prayers to all of you.##imported-begin##Eunice and Ralph Massey##imported-end##
