“ Aunt Joan, I love you more than words could possibly explain. No matter what I was going through you stayed by my side and helped me get through it. You were never one to judge because of my actions or words to others. You are part of the reason I have confidence in myself to succeed today; and I am not going to let you down. Just because you may no longer be with me physically does not mean that you aren't with me in other ways. You will always be in my heart, and I will always admire you for the strong, beautiful woman you always have been.##imported-begin##Teresa McCarthy##imported-end##

“ Aunt Joan--From when I was a little girl to a grown woman with children of my own you have been in my corner. We have laughed, cried and share to many things to count. I will miss you more than words can say. You showed me how to live life being true to myself. You have left an empty hole in so many hearts. I love you Aunt Joan and will miss you forever!##imported-begin##Anne McCarthy##imported-end##

“ Joan, Although I never had the honor to meet you face to face I certainly gained a great friend while sharing our journey thru the "C" word. I am proud to know you thru your son Chuck and I know you were proud of Chucky. I will check in on him for you. :) I regret that you had to fight this fight but thankful I had the opportunity to know you. You made me laugh as we compared aches and pains, highs and low in this walk. This year when I walk in Relay for Life your picture will be on my tent and I will have a candle burning in your honor. You did a great job raising Chucky and I am sure with all that you touched. You inspired me from afar. May your body now be at rest and your soul fly with the angels.##imported-begin##Carol Bell##imported-end##

“ You left your mark on many and on this world. You have touched many of us in ways words can't express, loved by so many and will be missed by all. I will miss our chats and especially how you laughed at my twisted sick sense of humor. (a humor i must have learned from you and my dad) love you always, Tommy##imported-begin##tommy gravel##imported-end##

“ Chuck, sons and grandsons may your memories of your wife, mother and grandmother comfort you during this time of loss. Joan was such a strong willed person, many people would not have endured what she has gone through. She loved all of you so much she didn't want to leave. Now she is in God's loving protection and will not be in pain any longer. Some day you will all be together again but until that time be assured that she is watching over you.

I have my many happy and funny memories of Joan from our "younger" days that I will cherish forever.

Rest in peace, Cousin. Love you forever, Joan Marie.##imported-begin##Cathy (O'Keefe) Coakley##imported-end##
