“ Dearest Lorraine,
I just heard of John's passing this morning in church as the Grace Chapel UMC congregation lifted you and your family in prayer. I am so sorry for your loss. I have such fond memories of staying with you and "Dobe" those few short months of my student teaching way back in 1990. He will be missed by all who knew him but left many fun memories behind. I'll call you soon to check on you and speak to you in person.
My deepest sympathy,

“ Dear Annas Family,

I offer the sincere condolences of my family and I. Loosing a loved one in death is probably one of the worst thing any human can go through. It is so hard to deal with for many of us. Out of love God had many scriptures recorded in the Bible that can help us to cope with the loss of a dear loved one. One such scripture is Revelation 21:3,4 speaks of how death will be no more. Soon no one will have to experience the loss of a loved one in death. The Bible also holds out hope for those who have already fallen asleep in death. At John 5:28,29 it speaks of there being a resurrection of both the righteous and the in righteous. Soon all of us who have loss dear loved ones in death will be able to see, embrace, and enjoy time with our dear loved ones. I truly hope these scriptures and thoughts provide as much comfort to you as they did to me when they were shared with me.###imported-begin###Joe Wilkes Jr.###imported-end##

“ Mimi, Michael, Miles and Aunt Geneva I share your sadness. Paps was a great friend. Nothing anyone can say that will make this day or the next easier. Hopefully time will. Know your all on my heart and in my thoughts and prayers.

Everything I do right now or look at makes me think of time spent with Paps. I was blessed to have his friendship all these years. Some of those thoughts even make me smile.

Thinking of you all. Love Becky##imported-begin##Becky##imported-end##

“ My heart is sad to hear this news. John was a wonderful man. I have never met anyone nicer or more sincere. I loved him to pieces and enjoyed seeing him daily when I managed the Country Cupboard.

Though I have not seen him in a year, I have thought of him and the other regulars there often. I do not know if I will be able to attend the services, but I send my thoughts and prayers along with my deepest condolences to his family and friends in this sad time. He will truly be missed. But he will never be forgotten.##imported-begin##Crissie Cain##imported-end##
