“ He was a good friend. One day while playing baseball at Ellis School I was pitching. Bucky hit a line drive that hit me between the eyes and knocked me out. We had many laughs about that over the years. Will miss his sweet smile.

*“ Buck we spent such fun times on the baseball field together. You should be proud of the wonderful family you have. I remember being so amazed watching your father hitting a baseball in his 70s with such power. I remember how much fun we had when you coached us in the old timers all star Legion game. It took me 2 days to get out of bed on my own from being so sore. I remember talking to Cass Safrit and we said we were getting to old for this. I remember when you took me out of the game and told me you had to get some of the other players in the game. I told you thanks I needed the rest. You will be missed by us all. God bless you Ann,Chad and Rocky.

“ I really more or less in a state of shock. I've know this man literally my entire life. I spoke to him last week, and he was as enthusiastic in our conversation as ever. I will always remember him as the guy who would come up to the car and crack a joke to me as a kid. He would love to discuss his children and grandchildren while would speak in his garage. He could always find a conversation, and one that didn't revolve current events or celebrities. He was smart as a whip, and a good person to just hang around. I know I'm gonna miss him more later in life, because he seemed to be someone you took for granted that he was going to be there, just because he was so dependable. I was blessed to know this man. My prayers are extended to his family at this difficult time.

Sincerely,
Major Jarvis 3rd. (MJ)
