God is calling His children home. All of my grandparents are now in His presence. I miss them all but have that blessed hope of spending all eternity with them. Thank you Lord for your peace, my fine family and my blessings! Even so, come Lord Jesus!!

“ I have many memories of my grandpa but the latest one was watching him light up the day before he passed when my aunt Jane walked into his hospital room. His smile went from ear to ear almost knocking off his oxygen mask. He really loved his girls and they have always done a great job caring for him. My grandpa was a very strong man and he will be deeply missed. I love you grandpa!!!
