Merlene, I was so sorry to learn of John Adam's passing. Please share my sympathy with all of his family members. We were cousins rarely saw one another. But, when we did cross paths you and he were always so warm and friendly.

“ My wife, Mickey Jo, worked with John at the HBA warehouse for Food Lion in the 90s. She told me John was a hard worker and a dedicated family man. I met him once and was glad to meet him. Condolences to his family and friends at this time and eternal rest for a fine man.

God bless you all.
