John worked for 27 years for American & Efird/Delta Thread in shipping. John was an avid fan of the former Washington Redskins (Washington Commanders). He loved Cheerwine, Little Debbie Snacks, and visits from family and friends. He loved God, had a special love of dogs, playing poker, going to Las Vegas. He had a wicked sense of humor. Teasing everyone he met.

John met the challenges of having cerebral palsy from birth with gusto and a positive attitude, most of the time. In high school he was voted Friendliest Superlative. He will be missed by family and a multitude of friends near and far.

John, Well done my good and faithful servant. Fly with the angels. You are whole now!

“ Johnny, you are a special man. You were the friendliest guy in our class, Boyden High School class of 1966. Last time I visited you we talked sports, and how bad our Redskins have been. When I see you in Heaven we will have eternity to talk. You were the best manager our football and basketball team ever had. You will be missed.
