“ I was a good friend of Ann & Steve's....since about 1980 or so...was in their wedding. Ann & I were best of friends.
I know she suffered thru her MS for many years. Steve was so loyal & always by her side. They were so very special to me. I got to know Steve much better when I worked at Spencer P.O. & saw him most every day. They were both ALWAYS concerned about how I was doing, and the welfare of those around them. He so loved his work & the Little Choo Choo Shop.
I know Heaven & the Angels are rejoicing at their reunion together above.
They both are dear to my heart & will be missed so much.
With sympathy & prayers,
Tara Lowrance

*I met John through the passing of his beloved wife Ann. John expressed the deep love he had for his wife and the love he had for the Choo Choo Shop that his wife and himself had created. What a wonderful man. Now he and his wife have beautiful wings and are reunited once again. Rest easy Mr. Surratt. You sure will be missed. My dearest condolences,
