“ I've only met a handful of people that I feel are genuine and kind. I lost one of those people when Rocky passed. I got the pleasure of spending a lot of time with Rocky this last year. Every time I was around him he seemed to be happy. Honestly every time I was around him and his family they all seemed happy as well! That is a very special thing to have. He was a great man and friend to me. Along with his family he kept my spirits up when I needed a lift. I will miss him dearly

“ R.I.P. Rocky!! My prayers and thoughts are with Jamie , their children and the rest of their family!!!! Rocky and I were wonderful friends and cut up a lot. Many wonderful memories of good times and delicious foods at Wahoo's Diner!! I will always remember the time Jamie thought that I had brought in a snake in a bag.....!! Tara was in on it. Rocky had a wonderful personality and a great sense of humor. He loved his family very much. I surely miss seeing and being with Rocky, Jamie and their children!!!! My love to y'all!!!!

“ This is so very hard to believe. Rocky was such a good hearted person. He would have you laughing and some funny stuff. I worked in the kitchen at Wahoos with Rocky. He was such a great guy. And he loved Jamie and his kids more than anything. We'll miss you Rocky... May you always fly high with the angels. R.I.P. always.

“ *Jamie,
Our thoughts and prayers are with you and the children right now. Kim and I both have fond memories of Rocky with his great smile and contagious sense of humor. I always had a great day when working with him for Ryan and never tired of trying to “out fish” him at the dock.
He was a wonderful person that made the people around him feel better
With sympathy,
