“ Johnny and I first met over 20 years ago as members of Spencer FD, responding to many late-night medical calls. As a new medical responder, Johnny helped me learn the ropes in becoming a firefighter and First Responder. Even after he retired, we would still run into each other on many occasions as he took daily walks around town. Johnny always had a kind word to say, and I will forever remember Johnny as the "Silver tongue devil" for his distinctive voice as a dispatcher at Rowan Communion. It was rumored that women would melt when they heard Johnny's voice come over the radio. Rest in peace, Johnny, you will be missed.

Sincerely,

Wayne Comer

“ I also served with John in the 377th Security Police Squadron at Tan Son Nhut Air Base during the Tet Offensive in 1968. There were about 900 of us so we didn't know everyone but we learned whom to trust and respect. Frank Ybarbo's piece about John said it better and with genuine sincerity. We all wore the same cloth, ate the same food, endured the same dangers and prayed to the same God. It was a true honor to have served our country with John whose whole life was devoted to the service of others.

“ Johnny and I grew up together. We shared the same Grandmother. When I moved back to Salisbury we got back in touch by phone and promised each other that we would stay in touch. I let him down and felt terrible when I saw his obituary.. I have nothing but wonderful memories of our childhood. To all of the family, you have my sympathy and love. He was really special.

“ Johnny and I, Frank Ybarbo, were best buddies in Vietnam. We played together, stood against our enemy together, laughed and experienced horrific fear together. Johnny was a brave soul and I often had to look to him for strength. We often talked about how we would cheat the grim reaper, grow old and spend days sitting in a rocking chair on the front porch. We shared stories about who we would find to love and spend our future with then share those memories as we walked on through life. Share we did. I was fortunate to have such a friend as Johnny Martin. I named one of my sons after him. Stand your post Johnny Martin just like you did against our mortal enemy. A piece of you is still with us.

“ John was a fine man and good friend. I always enjoyed having conversation with John when sitting in the dispatch room at SFD station 1 listening to him dispatch. His voice always calm and never changed. Thoughts and prayers to John's family. My family extends our greatest appreciation for John's service to our country.

“ John , James LeFevers and I were best friends in High School (North Rowan). All three of us served in Viet Nam. John and myself first. James was going to college. Upon graduation he was also sent.. John and I drove him to the air port to catch his flight. We dragged town and always got a milk shake at Zesto's while in school. He was so much of my life. His memory will always be with me. I cannot say enough.
