“ *Susan, Carol, and All Friends and Family...
I know Johnnys love will continue to live in all of our hearts. He was a very special soul. I thank God that I got to meet him and got to call him a friend for the last 20 plus years..*

. I met most of you because of him.

Johnny had a gift of bringing people together. Or he just really loved to watch us all dance and enjoy his music...

Rest in Paradise my sweet friend. We will all miss your sweet soulful music.

I will miss your huge hugs...

“ I met Johnny in the early 80's when he played in a Band with my future Husband, Charlie Johnson. We have remained close friends all of these years, no matter where we were in life!! Johnny not only was a FRIEND of ours, he was FAMILY!! Alot of people say that about others, but Johnny REALLY WAS. He and Charlie talked constantly on the phone..but so did Johnny and I. He was a true brother to Charlie, and the big brother I never had. There was NO TOPIC that we didn't talk about! We laughed, we cried, we gave opinions, shared concerns, wishes, heartaches, family and our Faith. His loss is a profound loss for us. The shock of this will take a very long time to process. If ever. Johnny was an amazing human being! His many talents, as an Artist, Musician, Writer, Architect and more, were small compared to the love he had for others. He touched many lives in his short amount of time on this earth. May you all find peace and be comforted in knowing that he truly was a Southern Gentleman. Rest easy now Johnny! Sing in God's Heavenly Choir, and play your beautiful music with Him and the Angels, until we join you there! We love you!

“ My sweet, kind and beautiful friend. I have so many great memories, staying up very late, moonshine in Mason jars and heart to heart conversations about life. I am so sad that we won't be meeting up this summer for one of those talks. Godspeed my friend. Heaven gained an angel for sure. Many prayers to the family.

*Much peace, love and light to all,
Wendy Morris*
