“ Jose was an incredible human being with so much love and spirit to share with those around him. Jose was a reason my high school years were so much fun. I remember when he and Clara started talking in high school and can recall how giddy he was anytime he talked about her.

I am grateful to have had him in my life when I did and grateful for the opportunities to catch up with him on the rare occasion. It was so nice to see him grow up into a loving husband, father, brother, son, and dedicated business owner. God has gained another angel in heaven and he will be greatly missed.

“ I was so saddened to hear the news about Jose. I came to know Jose through our mutual car dealerships. He became a good friend whom I greatly respected. And he was very generous and kind with his advice and suggestions when we were trying to get our dealership started. I will miss him. My prayers are with his wife and children. Sonny
